

C242 - CONOCO Travel Bureau
Subsidiary of Continental Oil Company

Chuck Spaulding

I was at a loss as how to handle this article. I purchased the illustrated cover from Bill Driscoll, the Club's Cover Sales Chairman, and a July 30, 1993 note from John Randall, the US Catalog Editor was enclosed.

In the end, I thought the best way to disseminate the information was simply to quote part of John's letter.

As far as I can tell, the perfins is C242, which is OK, because CONOCO Travel Bureau is obviously a subsidiary of Continental Oil (CONOCO). Thanks for submitting it."

Editor's Comments: When I contacted John Randall, US Catalog Editor, he noted that the CONOCO Travel Bureau would be listed in the Appendix in the next catalog revision.

The cover has been photographically cropped to fit these pages.
